BOSTON MORNING POST.

SATURDAY, JULY 9, 1836.

For the Boston Morning Post.

The Distribution Bill.—The writer of this paragraph, as an individual citizen friendly to the Administration, and having no personal interest for or against the measure, regrets most sincerely that the passing the deposite bill by Congress should have been deemed indispensible, and that the President should have found in necessary to approve it. There are, undoubtedly, very great evils on both sides of the question. "Of two evils choose the least," is an old and a good proverb. Of two classes of evils, each of most serious import, the President has, undoubtedly, chosen that which appeared to him to be the least—and he may have decided correctly. But I for one, expressing my opinion merely as a common, humble citizen, have very serious doubts concerning the correctness of the choice. In the present shape of the act, the making the several States the depositories, and the depositories ouly of the public money, instead of the incorporated banks, is undoubtedly constitutional. But is it not clearly understood, that these deposites are only nominally so, and that the States are never to be called upon for re-payment? If this be the case, is not the measure most clearly at war with the spirit of the Constitution—with the principles of our confederation—with the principles and practice of the State Governments? And does not this fundamental innovation teem with the most dangerous consequences? Is there any prospect that the General Government will ever have occasion to call for a re-payment, except in case of a war? And if the call be made in time of war, how can the States repay it, under the embarrassments of such an event, and with the other taxes and expenses which will then be required? Would any member of Congress dare to vote in favor of such a call—a call that would compel each State to levy a large direct tax on its citizens?—And if a member were to vote in its favor, would he not most assuredly lose his re-election? Is not the inevitable tendency of this act to shackle Congress, and to destroy all independence and freedom of action among its members? Is it not—has it not already been—a species of legalised bribery and corruption, and will it not so operate forever?

If this distribution be a gift, as is contended, and not a loan, then it is highly objectionable—it is most glaringly unconstitutional—in respect to the inequality with which it is distributed. The revenue is, firstly, unequally collected—and it is now, secondly, proposed to distribute it unequally; not so that these two inequalities shall balance each other, but that they shall render each other doubly operative. The revenue of the General Government is derived from the consumers—and these are the poorer and middle classes;—that is, these pay about as much as the rich, without any regard to difference of property. In addition to this, some whole States derive no advantage from the protection of the tariff, while others obtain a great profit from it—thus making the advantages and disadvantages from the tariff, by which this surplus revenue is obtained, altogether unequal and unjust. Again, in the distribution, the small States have great and unjust advantages over the large States, on account of the greater portion which is unjustly given, for their Senators.—Thus, for instance, the little State of Delaware sends only one Representative to Congress and two Senators. Every State, large or small, is allowed two Senators—but representation is based on population. The population of Delaware gives only one representation, while that of New York gives forty; and a just and equal distribution should therefore give forty times as much to New York as to Delaware. But as the act stands, the apportionment being in proportion to the Representatives and Senators of each State united, Delaware counts three, and New York forty-two. This makes the ratio, instead of 1 to 40, nearly three times that ratio, viz—3 to 42. If the surplus be 20 millions, then Delaware, for her representation, should justly have but 82,600 dollars, and New York 3,306,000—which is as 1 to 40. But the act gives Delaware 204,000 dollars, and New York only 2,857,000. Even if we give Delaware the proportion of two representatives, on the supposition that there is a large fraction of her population not represented, then her portion would be only 165,000, instead of her present claim of 204,000.

Thus, we are levying a revenue, unequally, unjustly and unnecessarily—putting the people to all the expense of its collection, encouraging smuggling and various other frauds, corrupting our elections, bribing or improperly influencing the members of Congress, and producing innumerable and inappreciable evils—and then we are again distributing the revenue among the people, so that one State shall have nearly three times the proportion allowed to another State, in reference to their comparative wealth and population. It is inconceivable to me, with all due deference for the opinions of others, how such a system can be sanctioned for a moment by an intelligent, a proud, a jealous, a thinking, independent people, like the mass of citizens, constituting this Union. ☞

A correspondent states that a young woman from the State of Maine, who was severely injured and lost all her money, by the accident on the Providence Rail Road, is now confined to her bed at Mr. Seaver's, in Fulton street, and very much in need of pecuniary assistance. Her case should be brought to the notice of the Rail Road Corporation, by whom, we have no doubt, it will be favorably considered.

The editor of the New York Herald gives a long and minute account of his way of passing the Fourth, and winds up by confessing that he took a little too much Rhenish.

The Newark and New Brunswick Rail Road was to have been opened, with knife and fork exercises, yesterday.

From the Boston Daily Advocate.

CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH OF JULY AT WEYMOUTH.

The sixtieth anniversary of American Independence was celebrated at Weymouth in an appropriate manner. A procession was formed under the direction of the Chief Marshal, Gen. A. Howe, assisted by eleven other Marshals. The procession was escorted to the Meeting House in the South Parish in said town, by the Washington Guards of Hingham, commanded by Capt. Cazneau, and the Weymouth Artillery, commanded by Lieutenant Cobb. The religious services of the occasion were performed by the Rev. Messrs Bisco and Wright in a very appropriate manner. The Declaration of Independence was read by Fisher A. Kingsbury, and a truly eloquent and instructive address was delivered by the Hon. A. H. Everett, which, at the request of the citizens of Weymouth, the Orator of the day has kindly consented to submit to their disposal for publication. The oration took up in the delivery more than an hour and a half, and was delivered without notes. After the close of the services in the meeting house, the procession moved to the dinner tables and partook of a sumptuous repast provided by Messrs J. G. Rogers and J. Reed. Col. Thomas Vinson, an officer of the Revolutionary Army, presided at the table, assisted by Samuel Humphrey, Esq, Capt Vinson Tirrell, and Ezra Reed, Vice Presidents of the day. After the removal of the cloth, the following sentiments were announced and read by Noah Torrey, Esq. in an audible and distinct voice, and were received with great applause.

1. The day we celebrate.—May its annual return inspire new associations and new determinations to defend and perpetuate our liberties.

2. Free Discussion.—A principle confirmed and established by the Constitution of the United States; the grand palladium upon which our free institutions are based; it must and shall be maintained.

3. The President of the United States.—Energetic and decisive in the field; alike so in the cabinet; his official acts, confirmed as they have been by the general voice of the people, encircle his head with a halo of glory.

4. The Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.—The expectations of the people upon his election to office, have not been realized under his administration.

5. Agriculture, Manufactures and Commerce.—The great sources of our national prosperity; may each be protected and encouraged by our National Counils.

6. Hon. John Quincy Adams.—Pre-eminent as a statesman; inflexible in principle as Chief Magistrate of the United States; independent of party as a representative; his reward will be found in the enduring esteem and gratitude of his constituents, and will adorn the brightest page in impartial history.

7. Hon. Martin Van Buren, Vice President of the United States.—The people's candidate for the Presidency, and in their estimation his Democratic principles have placed him beyond the reach of all competition.

8. The political climate of the nation.—More subject to thunder than to lightning.

9. The surviving soldiers of the Revolution.—Pre-eminently deserving the gratitude of their country—may their last be their best days.

10. Democracy.—Characterized by a sturdy opposition to all unnecessary restraints upon the liberty of the citizen, and to all monopolies whatsoever: a speedy triumph awaits it in the Councils of the State.

11. Our Commonwealth.—The good old fashioned democracy which distinguished her in former days, (notwithstanding its unhallowed alliance with Federalism, more recently known by the name of Whiggism, that "base compound of Old Hartford Convention Federalism, and Royal Arch Masonry,") is awaking from her death-like slumbers, and will ere long disenthral her from the shackles which they imposed.

12. The Militia.—Citizen soldiers—the only safe defenders of a Republic: he who would disarm such a soldiery, thereby making a large standing army necessary, only paves the way for military despotism.

13. The American Fair.—First in the promotion of every good work of reform; first in our hearts; let every attempt to circumscribe the sphere in which they are accustomed to move, receive the frowns of an enlightened community.

VOLUNTEERS.

By Col. Thomas Vinson, President of the Day. The Day we celebrate—Let the watchword of party spirit and sectarian creeds be forgotten, and the Fourth of July with its inseparable interests, be remembered from generation to generation, so long as political freedom and religious liberty shall have a name upon earth.

By Samuel Humphrey, Esq. 1st Vice President.—The Memory of the Patriots of the Revolution—While we enjoy the fruits of their toils and their sacrifices, may we follow their example of wisdom and virtue, that we may transmit to posterity unimpaired the independence we celebrate.

By Capt. Vinson Tirrell, 2d Vice President.—The Hartford Convention—An old sore, which the plaster of flattery cannot heal.

By Ezra Reed, 3d Vice President.—To our young compatriots—May the day that we celebrate, by them never be forgotten, and, if a foreign foe invades, may they transcend their fathers in deeds of glory; and may the Goddess of Liberty never have cause to shed tears for their default, till the name of the immortal Washington shall cease to exist.

By Gen. Appleton Howe, Chief Marshal. The orator of the day: he has delighted us with an entertaining and instructive history of the political parties of our country; and with an able defence of the life and character of Thomas Jefferson: he has broken away from the fetters of party, and proclaimed that the honors and spoils of office cannot compromise for the surrender of principles: may the talents of such men not long remain neglected.

By Hon. Alexander H. Everett, Orator of the day. The County of Norfolk: the head quarters of clear heads, warm hearts, stout hands, and democratic principles.

By F. A. Kingsbury, Chairman of the Committee. The opponents of the present administration: the "vox populi" will ere long make them tremble as the handwriting upon the wall did King Belshazzar.

By Henry Gassett, Esq. of Boston. The Clergy: value the instructions of those who dare not protest against freemasonry, as the instructions of time-serving men; and listen not to the preaching of those, who assert that St. John and John the Baptist, were patrons of any secret society.

By Benjamin V. French, Esq. of Braintree.—Martin Van Buren: the candidate of the true democracy for the Chief Magistracy of the United States: may he succeed over the Whig-nullification; the Whig Tippecanoe Hero, and the New England Whig treachery candidates.

By John H. Foster, Esq. Edward Livingston: while above the horizon he shone as a star of the first magnitude in the constellation of the American colonies; impartial history will canonize his jurisprudence, and the affection of a grateful people consecrate his memory to deathless fame.

By Gen. A. Howe, Chief Marshal. The Washington Guards: an honor to the name they bear; prompt in duty, exact in discipline: may the influence of their military spirit, be as extensively felt, as their fame is known.

By Capt. Cazneau, of the Washington Guards. The anniversary of the Nation's birth; the pride of freemen; as often as it returns may it inspire us with increased vigor to cherish, preserve, and defend the glorious institutions, purchased by the blood of our fathers.

By F. A. Kingsbury, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements. The officers and soldiers of the Weymouth Artillery: orderly and soldier-like in their deportment, alike honorable to them as citizens and soldiers.

The orator of the day, A. H. Everett, on leaving the table offered the following sentiment, which was received with great applause—

Old Hickory—the President, in whose administration the claims of foreign powers have been secured—the national debt paid off, and the number of the States doubled.

His enemies now say that he ruins the country by putting too much money in the Treasury ; may they never be ruined in the same way !

By Zenas French, Jr. of Randolph. The Democracy of Massachusetts—after having been gulled and deceived by the aristocracy, how delightful to see them returning to their first love.

By E. G. Wellington. The Orator of the Day—a pure defender of the rights of the people ; a firm opposer of all secret, irresponsible combinations; may his reward be promotion by his fellow-citizens to our National Councils

By James Whittemore, Esq. Andrew Jackson, Martin Van Buren, and Thomas H. Benton—real supporters of their country's glory; in such counsellors there is safety.

By Lovell Bicknell, Esq. True Democracy—without Masonry or Antimasonry.

By Alvah Raymond. Our Republic—born an infant, but capable of standing alone, and now in her advancement moves by the power of locomotion; may her engineers be such men as will never retard her progress for the want of skill, nor burst her boiler by forcing too much steam.

By Capt. Jason Pratt. The Democracy of Massachusetts—may they continue to increase and multiply, until every species of aristocracy shall moulder into dust.

By Major Jonathan White, Jr. The Orator of the Day—may the eloquence with which he has delighted his auditory to day, and the principles he has inculcated, be never effaced from our memories; may it remain like a green spot, ever verdent in the desert of our existence.

By Edmund Thomas. Martin Van Buren—an able, zealous, and undeviating champion of democratic principles; may old Massachusetts, true to her best interests, cause her electoral guns to announce her preference for the "favorite son of the Empire State."

By Lieut. Joshua Nash. The Militia of Massachusetts—may their fare be as acceptable and plenty in war, as the smiles of the fair in peace.

By Reed Blanchard. John Quincy Adams—the venerable statesman; in the evening of his days, his virtues shine with increasing lustre.

By Minot Thomas. The Democratic Party—the nation's shield in war; the nation's bulwark and defence at all times; may it never be polluted by the touch of federalism, or sullied by the principles of aristocracy.

Mob Law or Lynch Law—may those who advocate their adoption be the first to feel their application.

The rancorous spirit of party feeling—may it be buried in eternal oblivion, and measures, not men, be the rallying point throughout the country.

The Liberty of the Press—synonymous with the liberty of the people.

Party Spirit—a necessary evil; restricted within just bounds, a purifier of the "body politic."

About two thousand persons were in the house, and about four hundred at the table.

The editor of the New York Transcript has seen the constitution of a new club to be established there, to be entitled the Union Club. Its object is to ensure to the members the advantages of an aristocratic intercourse with one another, from which all promiscuous intercourse with the vulgar herd shall be excluded ! The reading room, library, and baths, are to be preserved from the contamination of trades people, and those who earn their living by the sweat of their brow, or the labor of their hands ! The wines and food are to be given at prime cost, and the former will be imported by the establishment. In order to be enabled to do this, each member will pay an admission fee of one hundred dollars, and a further annual sum of twenty five dollars, which will also have the effect of keeping out the common herd ! The number of members is limited to six hundred—and the regulations for their election are jealously guarded with restrictions to effect the desired object of exclusiveness.

Fire at Salem.—Between 11 and 12 o'clock on Wednesday night last, a fire broke out in the barn of Mr. Joshua Pope, in Boston street, opposite Federal street, Salem. We learn from the Gazette, that the barn containing a quantity of hay, leather, hides, &c. was consumed, and the adjoining dwelling house of Mr. Pope was nearly destroyed. The fire is attributed to design, as there had been no light in the building for several days. Some cows which had been safely tied up in the barn at dark, were found loose in the street, after the fire was discovered.

Several other wooden buildings took fire repeatedly, but were saved.

Melancholy—Two lads named Edwin Burroughs and Francis Clark, the one 18 and the other 15 years of age, were drowned in the Shetucket river, at Norwich, (Ct.) on the 2d inst, while bathing. The youngest of them, who could not swim, accidentally got beyond his depth—the eldest attempted to save him, and both were drowned.

On the 4th a man named William Dodge, was drowned in the Thames river, in the same town.

Dr. F. J. Higginson was the physician who neglected to report a case of varioloid to the city government, and was fined seventy-five dollars for disregarding the law upon that subject. It is not true, as reported, that the lady of the patient is afflicted with the same disease. Stephen H. Perkins is the gentleman who was affected with this sangerous and contagious disease.

The National Intelligencer of Tuesday says—"the bills which passed both Houses, and were signed by the presiding officers, on Saturday eve., at an hour too late to be presented to the President for his approbation, were allowed to be presented to him on Monday, and all received his signature. No other bills were matured on Monday."

A forger, who gave his name as William Thomas, was arrested in New York, on Wednesday, in the act of attempting to pass a forged check on the Mechanics' and Traders' Bank—other forged checks to the amount of $47,934 were found on his person. He claimed to be a broker.

Subscription books have been opened in New York for a new enterprise—no less than the erection of a chain suspension bridge, over the Niagara River, from Lewiston to Queenston. Acts of incorporation for this purpose, have been obtained from the Legislatures of New York and Upper Canada.

A boy named James Fenton, between six and seven years of age, was killed in New York on Wednesday, by falling out of bed in a state of intoxication. He had been sent with a pitcher for some gin, and had drank too freely of it on his way home.

The steamboat Canton, of Baltimore, was damaged by fire on Tuesday morning. A little boy about ten years of age, the only person on board, was burned or suffocated to death.

A new town is about coming into existence near Chicago, on a new principle. A covenant is to be inserted in all the deeds of the land that no ardent spirit shall be manufactured or sold on any lot in the town.

Garland to be Recorder of the General Land Office—and Wyllys Silliman to be Solicitor of the General Land Office—all under the act for re-organizing the General Land Office.

Accident.—Mr Warren Thomas, an industrious ship carpenter, had his right arm blown off, while loading a cannon, at Nantucket, on the 4th inst. He was thrown to the distance of several yards. He also lost three fingers from his left hand, and was otherwise injured.

Appointment by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council—Dr. Charles T. Jackson of Boston, to make a Geological Survey of the lands in Maine, belonging to this Commonwealth, under a Resolve of the Legislature.

We understand that Dr Jackson has received a similar appointment from the Executive of Maine.

Herr Schmidt's Exhibition at Amory Hall is worth looking at, and of a very amusing character.

☞ If it was warm on Thursday, it was hot yesterday—we didn't dare to look at the thermometer.

FROM TEXAS.

Natchitoches, June 13, 1836.—"By Dr. —— and two other gentlemen of Virginia, who reached here from our army yesterday, we have news up to the first of this month, when our army were near La Bahia. The enemy had passed there, which was the last place there was any apprehension of their making a stand. The Mexican division at San Antonio had been insulted by the Camanches in that place, who took from them all their mules and horses and left them no means to retreat. The enemy spiked all the cannon, threw them into the river, blew up the Alamo, left San Antonio, and joined the main army at La Bahia, as they had no means of conveying their baggage, to enable them to leave by a more direct route for Mexico. The main army on their retreat between the Colorado and St. Bernard, lost in one bog upwards of 100 mules, 14 baggage waggons, and made causeways of their muskets to get over the morasses,—burnt the carriages of their cannon, and buried their guns. This is a true account of the glorious retreat of the Mexican army, consisting of between 4000 and 5000, who fled thus, lest they might be overtaken by our army of six or seven hundred men. The enemy have now left our country. San Antonio is entirely deserted by its citizens. They say there are not six souls in the place."—Phil Gaz.

Coach Accident.—A stage coach was overturned this forenoon, while on its way to the Eastern Steamboat wharf, in consequence of the horses being frightened; there were several passengers in the coach at the time, one of whom, a gentleman, was thrown out, and before he could disengage himself, was run over, and badly injured—all the others escaped unhurt.—Merc

Accident.—Mr Hiram Briggs of this town, and Mr William Burt, of Freetown, while engaged on Wednesday afternoon in painting the Brick Factory in this village, fell from the third story, the stage on which they were giving way, and were badly hurt. Both had their limbs broken, but Mr Briggs is thought to be injured the most. Doubts are entertained of their recovery.—Taunton Gaz.

The McGrews.—One of the McGrews concerned in the murder of the two Kemps, was arrested a few days since by William Stratton, the captain of a barge on the Tombigbee river. A man named Johnson, one of his party, was also arrested. The other McGrew is at Moscow, Sumter county, at large, and setting every thing and every body at defiance.

The girl Eliza Baillin, who set fire to the House of Refuge in New York, has been tried and found guilty. A portion of the proof was her own voluntary confessions.—The Jury recommended her to the mercy of the Court, as she did the deed not from any malice, but from a wish to escape.

The Hon. John Serjeant is spending the summer months at Newport. That place is crowded with strangers from the South.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

A Brutal Assault, or an Infamous Conspiracy.—A very respectable, good looking, middle aged, married man, named PATRICK MADDEN, was indicted for a gross and obscene assault on Mrs Eliza Cutmore, one of his tenants, in a house in Bridge street, on Sunday, the 19th of June.

Mrs Cutmore testified through her tears, that at the time in question she occupied apartments in the house, her husband being then in Plymouth ; that Madden a short time before the occurrence of the alleged assault, became the lessee of the house, and the one adjoining, in which he lived ; that he offered to allow her to occupy her rooms, provided that she did not permit any one else to live with her, and would consent for him to visit her whenever he had a mind to ; that on Saturday, he turned her and Miss Ann Wright into the street ; that she could find no other place to live in ; that she consented to occupy the rooms alone ; that late in the evening, being alarmed at Madden's conduct, she got Miss Wright to come and sleep with her, privily ; that on Sunday morning, Madden came up stairs, without his shoes, and stopping at her door, bade her good morning ; that she was afraid to tell him that Miss Wright was present, for fear he would kill her ; that he asked her if her child was awake, and she answered yes ; that he asked her to come out of the room, but she refused because she was undressed ; that he replied, "it's of no consequence—I've seen a naked woman before ;" that he then threw a cloak on to the bed, which she put on and went to the door, for fear that he would enter the room and discover Miss Wright, and offer her some violence ; that when she came to the door, he put his arm round her, dragged her to the foot of the garret stairs, and asked her to go up, he being partly undressed, &c.; that she got away from him, he observing that she was d——d honest ; that afterwards he discovered that Miss Wright was in the room, and he threatened that if either of them ever opened their mouths about what he had proposed to her and what he had done, he would fix them both, &c.

Ann Smith testified almost word for word with Mrs Cutmore ; that "he chucked Mrs C. in the gutter, and struck herself a blow in the back, on the Saturday evening ; that about 9 o'clock that evening she left Mr Bradford's house, at the solicitation of Mrs C., to sleep with her ; that in the morning she heard what Mr Madden said, and hid herself under the comforter at first, and then got up, and by looking through a crack in the door, saw his gross behavior to Mrs C., &c.

Elias Hersey Derby, Esq., who was counsel for the defence, proposed to show that there was every reason to suppose that the two women, out of revenge for being turned out of the house, on account of their infamous characters, had conspired to fix an outrageous crime on Mr Madden. For this purpose, several respectable witnesses were put on the stand to prove the character of the women.

Samuel Shaw testified, that a few days before he had himself, at Mrs Cutmore's request, put her to bed and covered her up, she being too much intoxicated to help herself ; that she often had men in her house ; that she would keep sober for a month, and then get intoxicated every day for a fortnight ; that Miss Wright would come to her house and kick up rows with the other tenants ; that they were both troublesome neighbors, and had been warned out by Dr. Prakman's orders ; that Mr Madden expressed fear that Mrs C. might set fire to the house, while intoxicated, &c.

Joshua Sawyer said, that he had once put Miss Wright out of his room, for making a disturbance, while in liquor ; that Mrs Cutmore threatened to kill his wife and child, and the next day did throw a fife, sword, and stick of fire into the cradle where the child was ; she was always kicking up musses, and he should think that a person of her description should not be believed, &c.

Sarah Shaw confirmed the other witnesses as to the character of the two women ; a great many men visited Mrs. Cutmore, but she did not know for what purpose. One man called at 9 o'clock one night when she was out ; he said he had met Mrs. C. in the street in the afternoon, and she had asked him to call at her house ; he said something about washing clothes. When Mrs. C. came home witness told her that the man had been there, and she replied that she had no washing for any man ; the next day he came again, and staid an hour and a half with Mrs. C., and witness told her that it was not proper for a man of his appearance to visit the house, and she would not allow it.

Mary Ann Wallace testified, that the least noise could have been heard in the adjoining house, if any such thing had taken place, on Sunday morning. On Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Cutmore told her that she slept alone on Saturday night ; that Mr. Madden had turned both herself and Miss Wright out of the house on Saturday evening ; that she could not get another place, and was obliged to stay, but that she had not seen Miss Wright since Mr. Madden turned her away on that night. She made no complaint that Madden had treated her with any rudeness on that morning.

Benjamin Dearborn, a former landlord of Mrs. Cutmore's, said she was the worst woman he ever knew of, and he had to use compulsory legal process to get her out of his house.

The five points made in the defence by Mr Derby were, that the witnesses were not entitled to belief ; that they had a motive for a conspiracy ; that they had selected a singular moment for dating the offence, when it would be impossible for Madden to prove an alibi, because he would as a matter of course be in bed with his wife, who could not be a witness in his behalf ; that she expressly said to Miss Wallace that she had not seen Miss Wright since she was turned away on Saturday night ; and that it was incredible that she should complain to Miss W. at being turned out on Saturday night, and be totally silent about the more aggravated injury on Sunday morning.

Mr Parker attempted to explain her omitting to tell Miss Wallace of the assault in the morning, on account of the averred threat Madden had uttered, if his conduct was exposed. He reminded the jury that Mrs C. was as much entitled to protection against such an assault as the one alleged, as a temperate person ; that drunkenness did not put the citizen beyond the pale of the law, &c.

His Honer Judge Thacher, in charging the jury, adverted in pointed terms to the fact suggested by Mr Derby, that the hour proved was one when an honest married man would naturally be in his wife's company, and, as she could not by law be a witness, he would not therefore be able to prove where he was at that hour.

The Jury, after being out about 15 minutes, returned a verdict of not guilty.

The case of the quack Doctor Wilson has been continued till the next term.

MOUNT WASHINGTON HOUSE.

The Subscriber, who formerly kept the United States' Hotel, and lately the Pavilion at Saratoga, would respectfully inform the Public that he has taken charge of the new and splendid House (recently erected on the memorable Heights at South Boston) called the Mount Washington House, and that he will be ready on the 11th instant, in the afternoon, and every succeeding afternoon during the week, to attend to Gentlemen who may wish to select rooms, and on Monday the 18th inst. be prepared for the reception of company.

The House contains about two hundred rooms, has spacious piazzas, a fine promenade on the top, is built in the most thorough manner, and no expense has been spared to render it a safe, convenient and agreeable place of residence. MILL DAM FOUNDRY.

TO BE SOLD OR LEASED—The above well-known establishment, situated one mile from Boston. The improvements consist of—

No. 1. Boiler House, 50 feet by 30 feet, containing all the necessary machinery for making boilers for locomotive and other steam engines.

No 2 Blacksmith's Shop, 50 feet by 20, fitted with cranes for heavy work.

No. 3. Locomotive House, 54 feet by 25, used for putting together Locomotive Engines. Several of the best Engines in use in the United States have been put up in this establishment.

No. 4. A three story brick building, covered with slate, 120 feet by 46, containing two water wheels, equal to 40 horse power; Machine Shop filled with lathes, &c; Pattern Shop; Rolling Mill, and Furnaces, capable of rolling 4 tons of iron per diem, exclusive of other work; three Trip Hammers, one of which is very large; Engine for blowing Cupola Furnaces, moved by a water wheel; one very superior 12 horse Steam Engine, which could be dispensed with; and a variety of other machinery.

No. 5. An Iron Foundry, 80 feet by 45, with a superior air Furnace and two Cupolas, Core Oven, Cranes, &c fitted for the largest work. Attached to the Foundry is a large warehouse, containing Patterns for the Castings of Hydraulic Presses, Locomotive and other Steam Engines, Lead Mill Rolls, Gearing, Shafts, Stoves, Grates &c &c. These were made of the most durable materials, under the direction of a very scientific and practical Engineer, and are supposed to be of great value.

No. 6. A building 65 feet by 36, containing a large stock of chimnies and furnaces for making Cast Steel. This building has been used as a boarding house, and can accommodate a large number of men.

No. 7. A range of buildings 200 feet long by 20, containing counting room, several store rooms, a Brass Foundry, room for cleaning castings, a large loft for storing patterns, stable for two horses, &c. &c.

The above establishment being on tide water, presents greater advantages for some kinds of business than any other in the United States. Coal and Iron can be carried from vessels in the harbor of Boston, to the wharf in front of the Factory, at 25 to 30 cents per ton. Some of the largest jobs of iron work have been completed at this establishment; among others the great chain and lift pumps for freeing the Dry Dock at the Navy Yard, Charlestown.

The situation for Railroad work is excellent, being in the angle formed by the crossing of the Providence and Worcester Railroads. The Locomotive "Yankee," now running on the latter road, and the "Boston," purchased by the State of Pennsylvania, were built at these works. With the patterns and Machinery, now in the premises, 20 Locomotives and as many tenders, besides a great quantity of cars and wagons, could be made per annum.

For terms, apply to GERARD RALSTON, Tremont House until the 10th inst.; to THOMAS J. ECKLEY, Boston; or to ROBERT RALSTON, jr. Philadelphia.

DIORAMA OF THE DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM

☞ Corner of Tremont and Boylston Streets. ☜

PAINTED ON 2000 FEET OF CANVASS!

THIS splendid painting is from one of the many sketches of the illustrations of Scripture History designed by the late B. WEST, Esq., for a Gallery intended to have been formed by his late majesty, George III., and has been exhibited in London for 5 months to upwards of 80,000 visiters. The effect is truly impressive and powerful—it is a scene of awful sublimity and grandeur and shows the truth of the denunciations in the Bible against Jerusalem. As a work of art it must inspire every one with admiration at the prodigious efforts of human genius, and the gigantic ideas of the artist, and such is the extraordinary illusions with which it is painted, that the mind is led to contemplate it as a subject in reality.

Open from 9 till dusk. Admittance 25 cents.

Season Tickets (not transferable) 50 cents. MW&F je28

Important !

TO PERSONS SUFFERING FROM RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS.

To the Editor of the Inquirer :

SIR—On the principles inculcated by the great and good Dr Franklin, to diffuse as widely as possible every means in our power to mitigate or soften the afflictions of suffering humanity, I felt it incumbent upon me to make known through the medium of your useful paper that on reading therein an advertisement of Dr Jebb's Liniment, for the cure of RHEUMATISM, I was forcibly impressed with a belief that it was calculated to remove the severe Rheumatic Affection to which I had been for seven or eight years subjected, sometimes almost depriving me of the use of my limbs. I accordingly procured a Bottle, and before I had used the whole of it, found very sensible relief. This increased my confidence in it, and led me to obtain another bottle, the use of which has completely removed the swellings and pains of my limbs, together with the cramp, and restored them to their wonted vigor.

I am respectfully yours,
GEORGE TAYLOR, JR.

Hempstead, L. I., March 24th.

Persons suffering from the above complaints, and in despair of a cure from the failure of the various remedies they have used, are invited to make trial of this long and celebrated medicine, which has in years passed cured and relieved, as it is now doing, thousands who had despaired of relief. Nothing but a fair trial can give an adequate idea of its unrivalled excellence. It is also one of the best applications known for stiffness of the joints, numbness, spra ns and chilblains.

JAUNDICE BITTERS.—DR. SPRING'S Unrivalled Concentrated Vegetable Bitters, or Purifying Drops. The only cure ever discovered. Jaundice is almost universally prevalent in the Spring of the year and in the early part of Summer, and often becomes inveterate if not properly attended to. It is known by debility, drowsiness, sometimes loss of appetite, and great aversion to exertion or activity. It is sometimes shown by yellowness of the eyes and skin, faintness and bad digestion. Besides being extremely wearisome and oppressive, it is, if neglected, often fatal to the unfortunate sufferer.

TO CURE THIS DISEASE. Costiveness, Headache, Flatulence, &c. It is necessary to administer medicine calculated to assist the functions of nature, revive the depressed energies of the system, and purify and invigorate the blood. These will be thoroughly effected by the use of DR. SPRING'S BITTERS. This compound is the successful result of many years experience and patient study and research. The most eminent of the faculty have acknowledged its extraordinary merits, and great numbers of the afflicted have realized the most thorough relief, after failing to obtain it from all other available sources. This article is put up in bottles at 37½ cts each, with copious directions. One bottle contains sufficient to effect a cure in mild cases, and it is so prepared, that it will keep in any climate without injury. It may be taken in water or wine without any intermediate preparation, and is therefore in the most convenient form for immediate use.—No restraint of diet or abatement of customary employment is required.

From the numerous voluntary testimonials of the entire cures effected by this medicine, it would be invidious to select and quite impracticable to advertise them at large. Their publication is consequently dispensed with. For sale wholesale by Wm. C. Stimpson & Co., Druggists, south side Faneuil Hall, Boston; at a large discount to those who buy to sell.—Also for sale by Richard A. Newell, Summer street; Andrew Geyer, Charles French, Hanover street; Elihu White, Washington street; Edward Thorndike, Cambridge street, Boston; John Stevens & Co. EXPERIENCE versus THEORY.

DR. W. EVANS' CAMOMILE PILLS, having long acquired an exalted reputation in private practice by an invariable efficacy which could only have resulted from their exalted worth, he is confident that he has only to get them extensively known to render that reputation universal Unlike the clamorous host of quack medicines with which the columns of the public press are crowded, these Camomile Pills, have the testimony of the whole medical profession in their favor, and not a single case of ill consequences or inefficacy to be alledged against them. Their very name candidly acknowledges what they are composed of—and they honestly promise no more than they faithfully perform. They are composed of a beautiful extract of the Camomile flowers, in which all the tonic and restorative principles of that inestimable plant is preserved; and its irritating principle is neutralised by an alkeline infusion—they, therefore, necessarily afford immediate relief, in all cases of dyspepsia, or other derangements of the digestive organs. In sick headaches, nervous debility spasmodic affections, prostration of muscular and vital energy, and consequent loss of ease, comfort, and ultimately of life itself they restore health in the most impaired and hopeless constitutions, not by being taken in excessive quantities, for the necessity of their use continually decreases, as of course it ought to do, if they are good for anything—by their direct adaptation to the powers of the human stomach. There is one disease, however, which is unhappily but too prevalent, in which their ability will perhaps become pre-eminent, and that is in the disease which is produced by violent drastic purges, taken in pernicious quantities, and which may be termed the "Quack Mortem" disease. The excessive debility, both of body and mind, produced by this destructive practice, can only be relieved by a tonic, and such as the Camomile preparation contains. Dr W. Evans supplies an antidote for a host of public poisons, and a remedy for all those diseases which he professes to cure. A single trial will prove the vast superiorito of a course of practice which is based upon science, experience, common sense and honesty.

TO THE LADIES.—Amongst thousands of ladies benefitted by Dr W Evans' Camomile Pills, Mrs M. Beaumont (corner of Canal and Washington streets) has kindly allowed it to be made known for the benefit of others, that she was brought (by mental affliction) to a very weak and bad state of health, with pains in the side and head, was recommended to take Dr. W. Evans' Camomile Pills, which she has done to her comfort of mind and restoration of health MRS. M BEAUMONT.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—For the benefit of the public, and in gratitude to Dr W. Evans, I consider it a duty I owe, to make known the great good I have derived from EVANS' CAMOMILE PILLS. Having been five years afflicted with dyspepsia of the worst kind, I made application to numerous sources without benefit, but by the use of three bottles of Evans' Camomile Pills, and three boxes of Evans's Aperient Pills, I have found signal relief, fully to my satisfaction, and I am more healthy than I have been for many years. The symptoms (which were pains in the chest, weaknesses in the whole frame, heart-burn, flatulency, acidity, and headache) are all removed. I deliver this testimony over to Dr Evans, for his and the public benefit, for it to be made known. I hereby sign my name and address.

EDWARD RHODES, 95 Crosby street, N. Y.

A great many persons have been benefited and cured of different complaints; such as Dyspepsia, Consumption, Billious and Liver complaints, Headache, Weakness, Female Complaints, Nervous Diseases, Spasms, and others of all those Complaints for which the Pills are so efficacious.

Dr W. Evans' Office where both his Camomile and Aperient Family Pills can be obtained, is at 95 Division street, New York.

ADAMS'S PATENT

SWELLED BEAM

THE subscriber has on hand a good assortment of the Swelled Beam Windlass Bedsteads, which, for comfort and convenience is undoubtedly the best article yet invented; its chief peculiarity is that of the Swelled Beam, the effect of which is to produce a crowning, and elastic sacking, and effectually provides against its saging. They are easily set up or taken down, and may be saved in case of fire as easily as any other piece of furniture, and from its mode of construction less liable to harbor insects than any other kind; but above all its advantages is the ease and comfort obtained from the sacking, by means of its being made and kept elastic by means of the Swelled Beam, (the form of which is exhibited in the above cut.)

Orders thankfully received, and promptly attended to
